 - a. Allied Health Week: Nov. 2nd- Nov. 6th; ideas so far include:
 - i. Penny War: Each program (OT, PT, Speech, Nutrition, MIRS, etc) would have a jar and collect change throughout the week. Then on Friday we could say which group raised the most money and we could donate it to a local non-profit (maybe one in OKC (Holiday Headstart was suggested.) and one in Tulsa). It could be a way to have friendly competition among the programs and raise funds for a good cause.
 - ii. Grab-and-go coffee breakfast: Having something similar to Welcome Week grab and go breakfast (coffee/tea and pastries or something) with a type of banner/flyer up that could talk about the free breakfast and also about all the speakers throughout the week and maybe like fun facts about each department/ program
 - iii. Why do you love AH/ your profession: little cut-outs or something where people could write down what they are thankful for or love about their professions and we could hang them up there in the atrium kind of on that wall with the elevator and =a similar place in Tulsa to do it. And then maybe we can get the AH social media accounts to Tweet/ Instagram a few each day in promotion? Or maybe the newsletter? “People of OU HSC” – possibly second page of newsletter
