

College of Allied Health
Fall 2020 Orientation
Nutritional Sciences

Friday, August 21, 2020

You have a free morning to complete your Tb test at the Student Health Clinic on campus if you need to. You can also tour the Bird Library across the street from the College of Allied Health building, or meet-up with classmates and get to know each other and take a walk around campus (wearing masks of course), or take care of any other business you have pending.

1:00 pm –

5:00 pm     Study Skills Workshop
