

ROBERT M. BIRD SOCIETY AWARD

Purpose

The Robert Montgomery Bird Society Award is given to a graduating student “who shows a great potential for a creative contribution to the allied health sciences”. The award has been given since its inception in 1975 by the society to a graduating medical student and was expanded in 2017 to each of the colleges at the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center. For more information, please contact the Office of Academic & Student Services at alliedhealth-info@ouhsc.edu.