

OU GIVING DAY SCHOLARSHIP

Purpose

This scholarship program was made possible by donations from faculty, staff, students, parents, alumni, professionals and friends of the College of Allied Health during the University of Oklahoma's annual Giving Day, first held on February 28, 2017 and annually thereafter. These scholarships were funded to recognize outstanding students pursuing professions in one of the programs in the College.

Eligibility

Applicant must have successfully completed at least two semesters at the College of Allied Health, and be a continuing student in any of the College of Allied Health programs.
