

WE EMPOWER LIFE ...

PAVING THE WAY STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

Purpose

This scholarship program is funded by faculty, staff, students, parents, alumni, professionals and friends of the College of Allied Health with their purchase of an engraved brick paver. The commemorative brick pavers, which are currently located outside the College of Allied Health, are a lasting tribute, paving the way for future generations. The scholarship program is designed to recognize continuing students pursuing professions in one of the programs of the College.

Eligibility

Applicant must have successfully completed at least two semesters at the College of Allied Health, and be a continuing student in any of the College of Allied Health programs.
