

Phi Kappa Phi is more than a line on a résumé. The nation's oldest and most selective multidisciplinary collegiate honor society initiates approximately 30,000 members a year on 300 campuses in the United States and the Philippines.

More than 1.5 million members have joined its ranks since Phi Kappa Phi's founding in 1897 at the University of Maine. It is a global network of the best and brightest, a community of scholars and professionals building an enduring legacy for all generations.

Each spring students are nominated to join Phi Kappa Phi based on the published criteria.

Undergraduate

Undergraduate students who have completed at least twenty-four (24) semester hours, or the equivalent, at the University of Oklahoma, and who, in their junior year after completing at least seventy-two (72) semester hours or the equivalent, rank scholastically in the upper seven and one-half (7.5) percent of the junior class at the time of invitation, or who, in their senior year, rank scholastically in the upper ten (10) percent of the senior class at the time of invitation.

Graduate and Professional

Graduate and professional students at the University of Oklahoma, who have made an outstanding record in graduate or professional study as evidenced by ranking scholastically in the upper ten (10) percent of all graduate and professional students in this institution, have an outstanding record as evaluated by the chapter selection committee, and meet one (1) of the following requirements:

Have been registered as post-baccalaureate students in this institution on a full-time basis for at least one (1) academic year or on a part-time basis for the equivalent of at least one (1) academic year.

Are former post-baccalaureate students who have been awarded an advanced degree by this institution subsequent to the last previous invitation of members in the chapter.