The Department of Rehabilitation Sciences in the College of Allied Health at the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center houses four academic programs including two professional programs (D.P.T., O.T.D.) and two post-professional programs (Doctor of Science and Ph.D.). Our department is unique in that we provide both outstanding professional curricula and interprofessional courses co-developed and taught by P.T./O.T. faculty.

OUHSC is home to seven health professional colleges offering a diverse community for students in the colleges of Allied Health, Dentistry, Medicine, Pharmacy, Nursing and Public Health, as well as the Graduate College. Research collaborations are available through our National Cancer Institute-designated OU Stephenson Cancer Center, OU Health Harold Hamm Diabetes Center, Center for Geroscience and Healthy Brain Aging, and the Oklahoma Clinical and Translational Science Institute.

Tulsa offers diversity in culture, cuisine, attractions and amenities you would expect in metropolitan cities of excellence.

The University of Oklahoma is an equal opportunity institution. Individuals with disabilities and protected veterans are encouraged to apply. www.ou.edu/eo
